

fresh expressions on the road!

What is 'fresh expressions on the road'?

'fresh expressions on the road' is a road show offered by Churches Together in All Lincolnshire (CTAL) to provide people with an understanding of mission context and how you may reach people in your locality.

How does it work?

CTAL provides a team of ecumenical trainers to come and deliver a mixture of talks, workshops, interactive sessions and presentations to explore mission context and how you can reach out to people in your locality. The sessions are run over two evenings, spanning two or three weeks. The sessions are split into two specific areas:

Week 1

- Looking at the mission context we are currently in.
- How does this apply to the area you are in?

Week 2

- How can we engage with our local communities?
- Why do fresh expressions matter?
- How to start a fresh expression

Who is it for?

'fresh expressions on the road' is for anyone who is interested in local mission or interested in starting a mission project or fresh expression of church. There is no age limit for these road shows, however we would recommend not to bring young children.

How much does it cost?

The evenings are free for people to come too. CTAL covers most of the administration and travel costs; however we would ask you to cover any costs for venues and refreshments.

What to do next?

If you would like CTAL to bring the road show to your area, contact Simon Dean, Facilitator for CTAL and he will discuss the details of the day and will also discuss suitable dates with you.

What CTAL will provide.

- The ecumenical team to deliver the training.
- Support from the CTAL Facilitator in running your event.
- Provide the publicity material.
- Equipment and resources on the day.

What we need from you.

- Find the venue.
- Provide refreshments on the evenings, including desserts on arrival.
- Publicise the event in the area.
